DEDICATED TO

DR. VICTOR ADRIAN

When the decision had to be made as to whom Machaira '83 would be dedicated, the choice was clear -- Dr. Adrian. He means a great deal to the faculty, staff, and especially the students of Ontario Bible College. He has faithfully worked for us all in his position as President.

Before coming to OBC, Dr. Adrian was President of the Mennonite Brethren Bible College. Dr. Adrian began his ministry at OBC in 1973. In 1974, he became President of our College and has served us in this position for the past nine years. This is Dr. Adrian's final year with us; and we shall miss him. However, we pray that God will continue to bless him and his ministry as he begins to serve God as the General Secretary of the Mennonite Brethren Missions/Services.

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God (Eph. 6:12-17).

I didn't know I'd need it, but I took it in case;
The ultimate weapon was put in it's place.
The blackness absorbed me as I stepped out of the light:
I stepped out of my shelter and into the night.
I proceeded with caution as I went down the street.
For I knew that tonight there was danger I'd meet.
I looked all around me the street was all bare,
And just to make sure I said a quick prayer.
And just when I thought I was safe for the night,
I saw an old soldier, he looked dressed for a fight.
My heart did beat faster and my spine felt a chill
For that soldier was Satan, he was ready to kill.
My feet that were shod with the Gospel of Peace
Had taught me to run and never to cease.
I ran as fast as my poor feet could travel,
But I ran all in vain for I'd have to do battle.
He pulled back his bow string and shot an arrow of lie,
But my shield based on faith would not let me die;
He continued to shoot for about a straight hour,
And soon I found I was weak to his power.
He also did beat me with his staff made of sin,
But I was determined I would not let him win.
But my breastplate of righteousness was soon to get dented,
And the sins that he showed me could not be prevented.
He then got his battle-ax and lifted it high,
And he told me tonight I was surely to die.
He brought it down hard and it glanced off my head,
My helmet of hope had not heard what he'd said.
But I fell to the ground and prepared I for death,
For I knew I was breathing my next to last breath.
Now I don't know just why, but I think it was habit,
I cried out to God in a state they call panic.
"What should I do Lord, I guess Satan's won,
For with one more of his blows, his job will be done."
But it was not so I'd die that Jesus had bled,
And an inspired direction He put in my head.
The ultimate weapon, my key to survival,
I reached to my pocket and pulled out my Bible;
I quoted each verse that I knew how to say,
And soon the old soldier was backing away.
It says in the Bible the Word of God's sharp,
And with God's mighty power I'll rip him apart.
Resist the devil, and he shall flee;
At the name of Christ shall bow every knee;
It didn't take long before Satan did leave
For he knew the power of the Sword I did heave.

The light scattered the darkness for daylight had come,
My battle was over and this time I'd won.

Mervyn Budd

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete (II Cor. 10: 3-6).

For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart (Heb. 4:12).

President's Message

"Take . . . sword of the Spirit which is the word of God" Eph. 6:17

Every Christian is in conflict! The kingdom of God is in battle unto death with the kingdom of darkness. In Christ, in a constant close relationship with Him, we are strong; in Him our victory is assured!

But we need to put on the full armour of God in order to stand! Our enemy, the devil and his cohorts, is wicked, powerful, and cunning.

Among our weapons is the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God. It is very effective both in defensive and offensive action. The Word can thrust back the enemy so that the devil flees from us. It can also invade his territory to liberate others from bondage. Luther suggests Its power in his hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God", when he writes,

We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo, his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

As we, therefore, seek to master the Word of God at Ontario Bible College or have It master us, to make us fit for battle, we must constantly remember that it is the sword of the Spirit. The Word must not be separated from the Spirit. It is the Spirit who inspired the Word, illumines It so that we can understand It, and brings power to It. In dependence on Him, we study the Word, apply the Word to our lives, teach and proclaim It to men, and confront satan with It as he seeks to tempt us.

May we wield the sword of the Spirit, given to you by a gracious God, with valour, courage, and perseverance, until the battle is done!

Victor Adrian

Chancellor's Message

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

Paul portrays the foot soldier in his letter to the Ephesians (6:17) with graphic skill. No one would think for a minute of marching against the enemy with empty hands. He must be ready for the fray. Actually, the sword marked the complement of his arsenal. Now he was ready to move forward.

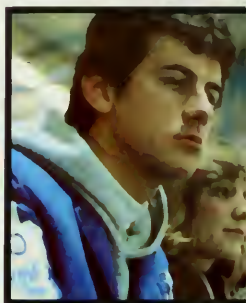

And so is it with God's soldiers. They too must be fully equipped with the armour of God, loins girt about with truth and wearing the breastplate of righteousness. Their feet must be shod with the gospel of peace, and they must take the shield of faith and the helmet of salvation.

But we reiterate that his most important instrument is the sword of the Spirit, for it is none other than the Word of God. And young people, you are here today in order to become acquainted with and proficient in the skilful handling of that wonderful living Word.

Therefore, make good use of your time. a soldier may have the best of war material but if he knows not how to use it, he will fall a sad prey to the enemy in short order.

And note carefully, we are not talking about innate skills and incomparable talents. God furnishes the answer. Our part is simple. "We are to pray always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and to watch with all perseverance and supplication for all saints." For after all, the battle is the Lord's and, "if God be for us, who can be against us?"

BEWARE OF THE FOG!!!

One foggy night Usher Central was visited by these mythological characters-Aplu and Enk. Well, they certainly are characters! Story has it that Mary and Sharon were fast asleep in their room when much to their horror these two characters intruded upon their blissful sleep. Surprised by their screams Aplu and Enk beat a hasty retreat, only to be caught by our photographer as they left the scene of the crime. Sharon and Mary have been haunted by this bizarre happening ever since.

*One year course completed through the Evening School Division

We all have our ups and downs.

Our class theme - "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you." (Ps. 32:8) - has caused us as a class to depend upon God's direction and guidance in our lives. As individuals we have enriched each other's lives and stimulated spiritual growth through the many opportunities for interaction. These included praying together in chapels, going on a winter retreat, having fun skating, decorating the lounge, treasure "hunting", and helping out with those memorable pen and poster sales! The crowning event was the delicious end-of-the-year banquet.

Through these experiences we have had the privilege of recognizing our established unity in Christ as our lives intersect at the crossroads of OBC. As an executive, it has been a privilege to serve you and we are thankful for your input in helping make our stay at OBC a valuable growing experience.

2 Peter 3:18

By Paul Walker.

CLASS OF '86

The Executive

This year the Class of '86 has had a tremendous opportunity for growth. Looking back on this school year, I can see how many have matured and grown in their walk with the Lord.

Our class verse was Galatians 5:25 "Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit." I have found this to be very challenging. First we must consider what it is to live by the Spirit. Then we must keep in step with it. Our class looked at the fruit of the Spirit as an example of what living in the Spirit should be like. We have strived to make Galatians 5:22 become real in our lives. "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control."

These are the things which our class has attempted to live. We feel that we can grow together as a class by spending time serving God, and by knowing His Holy Spirit in our lives. We have tried to keep in step with the Spirit by listening to His command for us.

I realize that some of our class are following the Lord's call to other schools next year, but our Class of '86 will always serve the Lord in obedience to His Spirit wherever we are throughout our lives.

On behalf of the Class of '86 Executive, I thank all those who have been involved and helped.

Your Brother in Christ Jesus,
J. Grant Ball.

The Executive

Nancy, you're sitting on my foot.

What do you mean - jump?

With his hands tied behind his back, he's speechless.

CLASS OF '84

We were blessed with a great diversity of characters in our class and it was the executive's intention to take full advantage of the situation. We realized that everyone in the class had something to offer so we did our best to encourage an atmosphere of fluidity and openness amongst all class members. We did this by adopting a "laid back" structure to our worship services. Consequently, the class involvement which we enjoyed laid the ground work for building on the unity which we already have in our Lord Jesus Christ.

On behalf of Mary, Lyne, Anne, Les, Paul and myself, I would like to express our appreciation to all of you for your loving concern. We were generously ministered to as we ministered to you.

I am optimistic about what the future holds for all of us! "It's a good life."

Family Picnic

The Family Picnic was a success, even though we missed the traditional rainfall. The early morning (screeching) singing and the short devotional started the day off right. The group activities and the football games to follow were a lot of fun; however, the highlight of the day was the Swiss Chalet Chicken. It aroused some 350 half-starved students (and the occasional teacher) in seconds flat.

The class of '85 worked hard, yet it was all worthwhile.

A DAY WITHOUT WATER

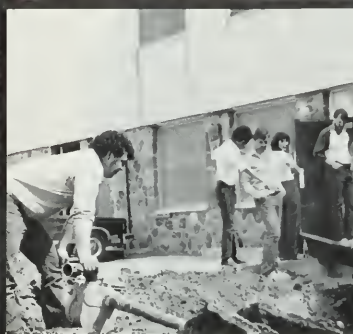

This is terrible - a whole school without water.

I wonder if the students know the cause.

Does anyone know what's blocking this line?

No we don't, but we can't find Sally anywhere.

How big is Sally?

See anything down there, George?

Sally! Sally! Sally!

How big did you say Sally is?

It's OK, fellows, we found Sally.

How long do you think it will take?

If they look like telephone booths, they are just rounding the corner of Bayview and Garnier.

Sorry, sir! There are none for staff only.

How far did you say it is to the gas station?

No! No! She is still in there.

They should not have pushed it over.

Oh, dear! I forgot my book.

Missions Conference

Penetrating Frontiers a great challenge for the Christian world. Dr. Ralph Winter, our theme speaker this year summed up the Christians' responsibility as "a committment to the cause, not career." Students, staff, and faculty were challenged by the messages that Dr. Winter presented and by his new insights into the task of missions around the world. There seemed to be a good deal of contact with the missionaries by students. The committee is praying that the students, faculty and staff will respond to God's call to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to every tribe and nation.

She finally got her man.

Student Council

"Not by might, nor by power but by my Spirit" says the Lord Almighty (Zech 4:6b). This was the theme verse chosen for this year's student council. We have emphasized the importance of our willingness to work for the Lord upon whom we rely for His strength and wisdom.

It has been a great year and we have all enjoyed, and learned from our experiences with student leadership. This year saw the addition of Grasis to the student council, so we are a growing organization.

We thank each of the members of the council for their involvement, all of the students for their input and the faculty and staff for their cooperation. But most of all we thank the Lord for His guidance and care for us.

Thanks to all our Supervisors and the Student Body, 1982-83, proved to be a successful and eventful 2nd year of the Gratis program.

After many hours of paper work, and consultation, Gratis is now an ex-officio member of the Student Council.

In spite of all the paper work, Gratis has had a lot of fun and excitement! (Sometimes planned and other times not so planned, right Howard!) With 2 kidnappings and several birthday parties, who says Gratis is all work and no play!"

Yearbook (MAXAIPA) Staff

The Marketplace and MAXAIPA are opportunities for the students to express themselves. The Marketplace published articles this year on a number of controversial issues including pacifism, nuclear arms and the Moral Majority. This year less copies of the Marketplace were produced, and interested students could pick up a copy in the cafeteria. This method of distribution seemed to work well, although one had to get there early to be sure of a copy. The small staff did an excellent job of providing both relevant and humorous reading for the faculty, staff and students.

Producing the MAXAIPA calls for the talents of photographers, darkroom staff, layout and copy staff, writers and night owls. While the staff of the Marketplace produce several products a year, the MAXAIPA staff produces only one. At this writing, even the staff has not seen the result. In spite of a late start, (four months after preliminary work should have started, there was still no editor) the staff valiantly rose to the occasion.

Marketplace Staff

SCGM

The Student Committee for Global Ministries (SCGM) is made up of an executive and various sub-committees which work together to make the student body aware of missions and motivate them to become involved. That involvement may take the form of a summer ministry, a career choice, or it may mean giving a little more towards the financial support of missionaries now in the field, and praying for them.

SCGM Co-Chairmen

SCGM's activities include planning chapels on the theme of missions, inviting missionary speakers to the school, and sponsoring prayer groups in association with the Devotional Committee. SCGM's biggest responsibility is the week long Missions Conference during the spring semester. Missionaries are invited to come to represent their mission. It is a great opportunity for students to dialogue with missionaries on furlough about missions and needs overseas.

Dev. Comm. Co-Chairmen

The Devotional Committee's responsibility is encouraging the students in their spiritual life. Dev. Comm., as it is affectionately known, also sponsors chapels, inviting speakers to the school. This year a devotional guide was published every month on the theme of the fruit of the Spirit. A different staff or faculty member was responsible each month for the guide. Dev. Comm. also sponsored prayer vigils and Prayer Day in association with SCGM.

Chorale Tour

It's fun to reflect over the past year and see how the chorale has grown, individually and as a group. It's neat just to look back and remember all the crazy times, the hours of practise and all that we have learned.

It all began with our first practise. There we were, approximately 35 scared and excited freshmen, ready to sing our hearts out. But what's this? We began with breathing exercises. "Make those tummies move!" Then we proceeded to yawn several times. (Hey, what's going on here?!) And finally we finished off by chanting something like, "ME MAY MAW MO MUCK ME MAY MUCK ME MAY MY MOO MA?!" (We had that one down by the end of the year.) The practises were always interesting and unpredictable. And it was great how we committed each practise to the Lord by starting it out with prayer for special needs, for the world, and for each other. The practises usually ran like clock-work, with sparse snags or troubles. But there were a few instances where the bass section deemed it necessary to go "ON STRIKE" or Merv Budd was inspired to ask John a thought provoking question. ???????

Once we were up to par, John decided to finally let us loose on some other congregations. The weekends out were each unique, and provided every member of the chorale a chance to grow and mature in Christ. No better place to get to know a person than through sharing a conversation on a long, late night bus trip back to O.B.C. Our weekends also provided, for many of us, opportunities to share our faith, to encourage others, and to be ministered to ourselves. And man, did we eat!! (No better place to gain weight than to go with the chorale for a weekend too!) God richly blessed us as we took some time out to sing for Him on the weekends.

The chorale tour also brings back many, many fond memories. The water fight that started as a dribble and ended like Niagara Falls. The rhythm and rhumba of the first O.B.C. "Male Spoon Ensemble." The old school bus with its built-in "Rock me to sleep" movement. And of course, Merv Budd and Jeff Teed combining their talents to share with us some of the most spine tingling and fun filled stories imaginable. Tour provided us with a chance to share with people the music and message that had been our joy to sing all year.

Other things tend to ring our "Bell" (HAR! HAR!) as we ponder the past year. The chorale parties, (complete with coke and doughnuts), the Christmas Choir, and the Graduation Choir all bring back unique and personal thoughts to each of our minds.

Special THANKS must be given to John Bell, Sharon Bell, and Linda Nicholls. Man, did they ever put the time and effort into the chorale! But even more important than that, they added the love too. Thanks to John for his leadership, his willingness to take time out and to talk, and his challenge for us to pray as God would have us pray. Thanks to Sharon for her excellent organ playing, and her gentle and quiet spirit that God used to touch lives in the chorale. And finally, thanks to Linda for her piano playing that was consistent beyond compare, and her life that challenged us all to be willing to trust God and give everything over to His control and care.

The chorale was a group of students that got together to have some fun, to do some singing, and to praise God. It was also a group of students that learned and matured in the process. Because of this past year in the chorale, I believe we are now better prepared to meet the challenge that Paul gave in Philippians 2:3,4... "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself; do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others."

GRADUATING CLASS MOTTO:

"Walking in Thy truth"
Psalm 86:11

CLASS HYMN

WE PRAISE THEE WITH OUR MINDS, O LORD

We praise Thee with our minds, O Lord,
Kept sharp to think Thy thought.
Come, Holy Ghost with grace out-poured,
To teach what Christ hath taught
In all our learning may we seek
That wisdom from above
Which comes to all: the brave, the meek.
Who ask in faith and love

We praise Thee thro' our bodies, Lord,
Kept strong to do Thy will;
Thy Spirit's temples, which afford
A means to praise Thee still.
We give ourselves, a sacrifice,
To live as unto Thee;
For Thou alone hast paid the price
To bring salvation free.

We praise Thee in our hearts, O King,
Kept pure to know Thy ways:
And raise to Thee a hymn to sing
Eternally Thy praise
Altho' adoring hearts will bow
As age on ages roll;
We praise Thee in our beings now.
Mind, body, heart, and soul.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

by
John Lambshead, B.Th.
Class of 1983

This address was given at the Graduation Banquet for the Class of 1983 on April 29, 1983.

I have heard it said that, "Today's good times are tomorrow's happy memories." As I reflect on my years at Ontario Bible College, I find this statement to be abundantly true. I have many happy memories.

I would like you to consider with me, the last three or four years at O.B.C. as a chapter in the book of our lives. As we begin to read this chapter, we find some of us entering O.B.C. after a season in the work force; some of us from university; and some of us straight from high school. All of us, however, came with a desire to know God better and to learn how to serve Him more effectively.

As we read on in this chapter, we remember when we entered this rather large, six-storey building on our first day. As we walked into the O.B.C. corridors, we were swept off of our feet by a horde of upperclassmen wearing funny "T" shirts, offering to assist us to our rooms.

Then we were introduced to our first roommate, and we wondered how in the world we would make it through our first year, let alone subsequent years. Little did we realize that these strange people would greatly contribute to our spiritual growth and become our best friends.

As the pages of this chapter are turned, we remember ourselves attending classes such as Philosophy, Global Missions, Principles of Christian Education, Theology, Romans, Corinthians and Prophets. We remember ourselves "cramming" during the wee hours of the morning preparing for those exams and desperately attempting to complete our term papers on time. We remember that at times like these, we found it difficult to respect the faculty, but little did we know that the heavy workload was teaching us valuable lessons in time management, developing character and endurance, and of course, enriching our knowledge of the Scriptures.

As the pages continue to turn, we recall those times spent with our professors seated in their offices or around the lunchroom tables. How pleased we were to realize that our professors were just as interested in our development as Christians and as people, as they were about how well we performed in the classroom.

Interspersed throughout this chapter, we find the members of the Class of '83 coming to appreciate each other more and more. This was largely due to the work of Class Presidents and their executives. Prayer chapels, class socials, and class retreats all contributed to a growing appreciation of each other. Much gratitude was felt for the work of our class executives.

The chapter progresses, and we realize the value of the O.B.C. Community Life philosophy which has encouraged us to be responsible people with a deep concern for the welfare of each other. We have gained valuable insights into the proper functioning of the Christian community.

And now this chapter in the book of our lives is concluding. We have had the privilege of knowing our God on a deeper level. We have learned to be effective ministers to God's people. We have made many lasting friendships.

This could be a time of sad parting, but it need not be sad, because the pages of our lives keep turning. Many new chapters are about to be written. How exciting it is to see how God has worked in us over the past few years, and how much more exciting it is to contemplate the growth that lies ahead.

My valedictory exhortation to my fellow classmates in the 1983 graduating class is this: let us not neglect the learning of the past few years. Use it to honour our God. Use it to build up the saints. Use it to win this world to the Lord Jesus Christ.

As the following advice was given to Timothy, so let it stand as my encouragement to you: "... continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of..." (2 Timothy 3:14). ■

GRADUATION SERVICE

The following testimonies were given by Miss Marney Adams, Mr. Alexander Parachin and Mr. Sheldon Dyck.

Marney Adams, B.S.M.

MUCH IS REQUIRED OF THOSE TO WHOM MUCH IS GIVEN

In some ways, it is hard to believe that 4 years at O.B.C. have already gone by. Reflecting upon those years, three things stand out in my mind.

First, I have become increasingly thankful for the positive influence of being raised in a Christian home. I really appreciate the example which my parents set before me, both spiritually and musically. I am thankful for their example in their relationship with each other, with their children, and with others around them. The influence of other relatives and friends has also been important in the shaping of my character and goals as a Christian.

I am thankful for the many opportunities for spiritual and musical development provided by my home church. Through these, I developed a sense of self-worth. It was encouraging to discover that my talents and abilities could contribute to the life of the church in a meaningful way. Leadership roles and group participation opportunities all gave me a solid foundation of experience to build on.

I am also thankful for the background of my profession as a Registered Nurse. It has not only provided for my financial needs, but more importantly, it has kept me in touch with the realities of everyday life and the people involved in those realities. As well, it has given me an opportunity to display Christian love to them in a practical way.

My background has proven far more valuable than I thought. I stand here thankful for all of it.

Secondly, I have come to believe that in any circumstances of life, the emphasis must be upon one's response to it. It is not what happens to me, but what I do with it that really matters.

A particular class may be great. Yet, if I do not appreciate it, I lose its value. On the other hand, a class may not be so great, but if I seek to make of it the best that I can, then it may be a great class after all.

I think of the wealth of knowledge and experience to be found among the people of O.B.C. It is so easy to become steeped in the academic demands of school. But interaction with faculty, staff and students is important because it establishes and builds relationships which can continue long past the school years. It is important because we do learn from others through their experiences, both negative and positive. It is important because we need not face a difficulty alone, be it academic, personal or spiritual.

Field education has provided many experiences each year. Sometimes, this has required flexibility and spontaneity, when I would have preferred organization. I see this as growth producing, in learning to respond to a circumstance positively, regardless of previous planning which would not be appropriate in that situation.

Learning to trust the Lord has been an area of growth for me, especially when in unpredictable situations. I have really found that I respond better in a situation when my reliance on the Lord is exercised. For it is only when I leave myself open to the Lord, that I can be used best by Him, in any circumstance.

Third, I feel compelled to offer all that I am and have for God. I came to O.B.C. with the concern that "much is required from those to whom much is given". Four years later, after much more has been given to me in instruction and experience, I feel that even more is required of me. The gifts, abilities and opportunities given to me must be used wisely and responsibly.

I WILL FOLLOW YOU!

It is hard to believe that graduation day has finally arrived! There are no adequate words to describe the very deep feelings of my heart at this very special time. It is a moment that I have worked towards, and thought of often, during the past eight years of study in the O.B.C. Evening School degree program. Many times I have told myself (and been reminded by my wife Donna) that if I just kept pushing on, that someday, this day would arrive. Well, the day is here and I stand amazed at the goodness and grace of God who, according to His Word, has enabled me to "do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Strangely enough, my reactions to this moment are somewhat mixed. On the one hand, I am naturally thrilled and excited to have finally accomplished this goal. There is no one more filled with joy than I, as a result of its realization. On the other hand, there is, in some measure, a sense of sadness associated with the completion of my studies. I have always considered it a privilege and a blessing to be able to study God's Word within the framework of Ontario Bible College. From the very first lecture of the first evening credit course offered by the college at the old Spadina campus, there came to my heart a hunger and desire for this knowledge of God, accompanied by a special presence of the Holy Spirit. In response to many who have said to me over the years, "I do not understand how you are able to consistently sacrifice and give of your time to these studies", I have been able to honestly reply that I have simply done the thing which has blessed me the most—study God's Word!

It is no exaggeration to state that time and time again, both in the class and out, the reality of God broke in upon me each time I grasped the understanding of another dynamic truth of Scripture. Throughout this process of study, my capacity to behold God, to worship Him and to fellowship with Him, has been wonderfully expanded and, in turn, God has filled that very part of my heart which He has opened, with Himself.

Sacrifice? No, I was called to a secret place and graciously allowed to meet with Jesus, to sit at His feet and to be made whole in His presence. I shall ever be grateful for this gift that has been given to me through Ontario Bible College!!

I can think of no better way to thank God and to exemplify all that is represented here at the College but to very simply repeat again the very first prayer I ever prayed when I first came to know Jesus as Saviour while sitting in the office of a Methodist minister some 12 years ago. Having been involved in the drug culture of the mid-1960's—a world of hallucination and unreality—I quietly turned my life over to God saying, "If you put the footsteps in front of me one step at a time, I will follow You." I believe that God has done just that and has led me to this point in my life. I want once again to tell Him, "As You put the footsteps in front of me one step at a time, FROM THIS MOMENT ON, I will follow You!!"

"THE ONE WHO CALLS YOU IS FAITHFUL"

Do I really want to go to Bible College? Is that the right place for me? These were just two of the many questions that ran through my mind as I sent in my application to Ontario Bible College four years ago. I was not sure what I wanted to do in terms of life plans, but one thing was certain. I wanted to grow in my faith and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Now, as I reach the end of my training here, I need to ask myself, "Has my desire been achieved." "Has Christ been doing a transforming work in my life?" There have been times when I have been discouraged and have wondered if God was really going to bring about the process of change. But as I examine the past four years in particular, I'm amazed to see the growth that God has worked in my life. A number of factors have contributed to my growth in the knowledge of Christ, and I would like to relate to you just a few of them.

I have been academically challenged at O.B.C. and have come to a clearer understanding of my faith. In the Bible and theology classes, I have clearly encountered a greater knowledge of the person of Jesus Christ and, as I've considered Him, I have been prodded on to a greater growth. But also, a course like philosophy has helped to prepare me to intelligently deal with other world views. Counselling has given me greater insight into myself, and I believe this will enhance my future ministry and relationships with other people. And even New Testament Greek this past semester has helped to enrich my understanding of the love and grace of God through our translation and study of the book of Galatians.

I have also experienced growth through the opportunities I have had to be involved in leadership positions. I have taken part in student leadership at the College, and I have also had the opportunity to work in a local church. These experiences have provided ways for me, a fairly shy individual, to be actively involved in instructing and guiding others. Through these occasions, I have come to realize that I, too, have gifts as a member of the body of Christ. One of them, I believe, is in the area of teaching.

These factors have been important to me, but one of the greatest things that has helped me in knowing God has come through the friendships that I have made. Here again, the school setting has provided for an atmosphere of growth. More important than the theoretical teaching has been the Christian love and fellowship that I have experienced. Through a close interaction in the lives of other students, I have come to see God working in their lives.

I remember having a fear that if I gave all my life plans and ambitions into the Lord's hands, I thought my desires might be destroyed. At that time, there were still things in my life that I didn't want to give up. Again, after communicating and sharing ideas with some friends, I came to see how wrong my thinking was and realized that joy comes through giving my all to the Lord. I was inspired by their desire to serve and as a result, I have been challenged in my commitment to Jesus Christ.

As I consider the professors who taught me at O.B.C., I have been impressed with the fact that several have been more than teachers; they have also been friends. I'm reminded of that when I think of the wit and humour of some of the professors who have accompanied us on choir tour. But there have also been many serious times of interaction. Just a couple of weeks ago, one professor deemed it worthy to spend over an hour with me in a time of discussion and prayer to encourage me in a struggle that I have recently been going through. I am thankful for the input of my professors, and I have grown as a result of it. In fact, as I now consider a future ministry, I can see the true need of caring for people as a priority over the subject matter that I may communicate.

1 Thess. 5:23, 24 says, "May God Himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. The One who calls you is faithful and He will do it." God has been working in my life and these past four years have been an important part of the process. But God is going to continue in this work of sanctification. I am thankful for what God has done, but I leave with an anticipation and excitement to see what God is going to do. God is faithful and will complete this work that He has begun in me.

The East WALL

Dear Folks a Q.B.C. 1983.

Thanks to all of you who have made this a very special year in my life. The things that we have shared together have touched my life in ways that you may never know. I wish you my brothers and sisters in Christ the unspeakable joy of walking in the service of the Lord.

May we draw closer to Him each day.

Love Prayers & Hugs to all of you
In our worthy Master

Lola Mather

TO: GRANT BALL
"PIE OR NO PIE" Brian.

Dearest Rhodes South,

I want to thank you for giving me a very meaningful year. I love you all and I will miss you all more than you know. Thank for your encouragement and for bringing me closer to Jesus. I love ya!

Robyn xo.

Jan Pota,
Thanks for the encouragement.
Carolyn.

Dear karen MacLeod,

Congratulations on graduating.

Well, just think, now that you are out of here I can't do anymore pranks on you.

No more confettiing your room, putting peas in your bed, hanging your clothes up, short sheeting, vaseline on the door handles, no more bugging you. Oh well, life was great while you were here.

God Bless. Good luck next year at school. See you whenever.

Love Ya,

Your favourite dormie,
Laurie Gould.

Dear Laurie
Remember the old one who was always telling you to do your homework, I love you to my favourite one
Mona

Paul, Bryan & Andrew
you three were both
special gift to me this year
Thanks you for your friendship
Betsy

Sibson & Kennedy
Thanks for all the good and fun, but you had better get rid of that scarf.
Love, MacLeod.

DEAR BEAR:
"I DO!"

Cheryl
Thank for a good year & for being a great friend
Barb

Paul Walker
Thanks for being a special friend for the good times, the laughs
and even the sad times
May God bless you
May yours in my prayers
A friend in Christ

MY RA'S JOAN, NANCY AND ALL MY FRIENDS
YOU ARE ALL SPECIAL, THANKS FOR BEING THE ENCOURAGEMENT YOU WERE
AND HELPING ME THROUGH THOSE TIMES
WHEN I REALLY NEEDED SOMEBODY.
THANKS FOR CARING AND LISTENING
AND HAVING THE PATIENCE YOU ALL DID.
ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU ARE LOVED
GOD LOVES YOU AND SO DO I.

IN HIS LOVE
JO-ANNE NICHOL
PROV. 18:24

To those six crazy gals who have been a special part of my life..
You know who you are..
Thanks for enriching my life with much laughter, smiles and warmth. I'll never forget you. I. L. Y. all

The West WALL

Dear Mama (Karen B)
 School was a blast
 this year especially with you. We've had so much fun together and I'm really going to miss you. No more scabble, no more yelling,
 no more throwing toilet paper and no more late night talks. You better write me next year. Don't forget when we went out to dinner.

Have a nice relaxing summer. Take care until
 I see you next.
 Love Ya Forever
 Your favourite
 daughter,
 Laurie Lynn

TO: RICHARD BROWN:
 Thanks for
 being my roommate.
 Brian.

LOVE IS.....
 FORTUNATELY

Robin,
 Have you seen
 Bob Loblaw lately?
 Barb.

KAREN MACLEOD: WHOM I ENJOYED AS A VERY KEEN WATCHER, OBSERVER AND
 LISTENER. I LIKE THE WAY YOU SPONTANEOUSLY
 RESPOND VERBALLY TO THE LIFE IN OTHERS THERE IS SOMETHING VERY SUPPORTIVE AND HEALTH-GIVING
 IN YOUR SPIRIT, ATTITUDE AND EYES.
 MAY OUR PRECIOUS MASTER BECOME EVER MORE
 LOVELY TO YOU DAY-BY-DAY AS ONLY HE CAN.
 YOUR FRIEND ALWAYS

From the editor

It's a relief to see the book finished, thanks to the efforts of many people. I would like to thank each person who contributed to the book, from those of you who wrote articles to the classroom and photography staff. I'd like to particularly mention my assistant editor, Margie Wise, whose untiring effort (relentless at 5:00 in the morning!) was invaluable. Thanks to the faculty members, staff and students who encouraged us. I'd also like to thank my father for his professional advice and help.

Carolyn

Y M YONGE STREET MISSION

Bread lines and soup kitchens.
A history we're proud of but a tough image to shake. Toronto has grown over the past 86 years and so has THE YONGE STREET
MISSION, caring not only for
"down and outers" but for whole families. Congratulations to the 1983 graduates. We think
O.B.C. grads are special people.
In fact, they have played a vital role in our ministry, both as field education volunteers and full-time staff. Why don't you give us a call today?

YOUR CLASS MOTTO THIS YEAR IS

"Walking in Thy truth"

What a wonderful class/life motto for you to start out with! May it prove to be a reality in your personal lives and christian work in the years that lie ahead until he comes to be crowned 'King of Kings and Lord of Lords.' "Be ye steadfast, unmovable, ALWAYS abounding in the work of the Lord"
